

Open Call for Urban Artists

The Dresden based LackStreicheKleber Urban Art Festival invites artists to participate in the 2017 edition.

LackStreicheKleber - Urban Art Festival Dresden

The first edition of LackStreicheKleber Festival took place in August 2014. From the beginning the organizers encourage the international exchange between urban artists and citizens. That's why annually the festival organizers invite artists to realize murals and exhibitions together.

Urban Artists Call

In 2017 large sized murals are planned to be realized in the neighborhood of Dresden-Leuben. The area offers walls in different sizes, but all on the same kind of buildings.

Before the realization starts German artist team Jens Besser & Stefan Schwarzer will carry out an open workshop for local citizens. During the workshop Besser and Schwarzer ask locals about their wishes and collect recommendations for the murals.

Participating urban artists should include proposals and wishes of the citizens in their murals. All murals are done in artist teams. The team is formed by one local and one guest artist.

The period for mural realization starts on 29th July and ends on 4th of August.

The period is divided into:

- 2 days for preparation and planning
- 3 days of realization
- 1 day for presentation

Artists have to be present in Dresden during the whole process and open to be documented.

What do we offer

- All participating artists receive an artist fee of 500€ (incl. VAT)
- travel expands up to 150€
- materials for each team up to 300€
- food and accomodation are provided by the festival organizers

We do not offer insurance during your works. Its recommended that artists should take out a professional liability insurance.

Submissions and deadline

Please send us an E-mail with the wish of participation in the mural project. You should include a link to your website. It's possible to send various links of public works you realized. Examples of collaborative works are preferred.

If you have no online presentation you can send a portfolio pdf via wetransfer.

All submissions need to be sent to walls@lackstreichkleber.de .

Deadline for submissions is 7th May 2017.

You will get information about your participation in middle of June 2017. There is no guarantee for participation in the project.

THANK YOU for your interest in our project.
